

The Department of Economics at the University of Manchester welcomes applications for students who wish to study for a PhD in Economics, while specializing in Economic History under the supervision of Dr. Nuno Palma: <https://sites.google.com/site/npgpalma/>

About 10 students are admitted to the Manchester PhD track each year, many of which with scholarships given by the University of Manchester or ESRC. You may be admitted with or without funding; in the latter case, you will be advised to search for external funding opportunities. After reviewing your application, we will inform you whether you are accepted or not, and in the former case, if we are able to offer you a scholarship.

There is NO application fee. It is advisable that you apply until the end of February. Find out more in the following links:

<http://www.manchester.ac.uk/study/postgraduate-research/programmes/list/02976/phd-mres-economics/>

<http://www.manchester.ac.uk/study/postgraduate-research/programmes/list/02976/phd-mres-economics/application-and-selection/>