

Queen's Management School, Queen's University Belfast & Queen's University Centre for Economic History are seeking a Research Assistant commencing in October 2018.

The successful candidate will work on an ESRC-funded project (Title: 'The Sterling Area Revisited: The Political Economy of International Economic Disintegration' ES/R005435/1), that plans publications in top international journals. The post is available from 1 October 2018 (or as soon as possible thereafter) until 30 June 2019 and there is potential to transition onto a fully-funded 3-year PhD studentship. The post includes a generous budget for training and conference travel. Further information about the project can be found at www.quceh.org.uk/the-sterling-area-revisited.html.

The successful candidate must have:

- Degree or equivalent in subject relevant to research activity.
- A Master's Degree (or be about to obtain) in Economics or cognate discipline with a demonstrated interest in Econometric Methods.
- Some practical experience of applying specialist skills and techniques required for the role.
- Sufficient breadth or depth of specialist knowledge in the discipline and of research methods and techniques to work within own area.
- Experience of data management and econometric analysis.

Further information about the School can be found at www.qub.ac.uk/qms. Informal enquires may be directed to Dr Jack Seddon (email: j.seddon@qub.ac.uk), Dr Alan de Bromhead (email: a.deBromhead@qub.ac.uk), or Dr Martina Bozzola (email: m.bozzola@qub.ac.uk).

Anticipated interview date: Friday 25 May 2018.

Starting salary: £27,285.

Closing date: Wednesday 9 May 2018.
