

Northwest African Ports-West African Maritime History Bibliography – author list (version 1.0)

Daniel Castillo Hidalgo (compiler)
University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria (Spain)

This bibliography comprises materials used in my Ph.D. dissertation and in the course of writing my book about the History of the Port of Dakar, 1857-1957 (forthcoming) and other academic works which have been published. It includes references for the Northwest African Maritime History and other topics such as Economic Development related to transport infrastructures during the colonial age.

This first edition compilation only includes books, journal and periodical articles and other secondary sources. It excludes government reports. The list is intended as a research aid and is not exhaustive. Finally, many of most recent items particularly are contextual and are not solely about Shipping and West African Ports but other related topics, mainly based on the Global South economies.
